BIOFACH: the organic family is growing and thriving

The leading exhibitions in the BIOFACH World connect raw material marketplaces with international demand in 6 key economic regions of the world – and promote the development of regional markets at the same time. They are the meeting places for supply and demand, raw materials and convenience products, manufacturers and buyers, as well as politics and media.

The BIOFACH recipe for success

Under the patronage of IFOAM - Organics International, BIOFACH guarantees the constant high quality of exhibits through strict admission criteria. All exhibits are certified to the accreditation directives of the IFOAM Family of Standards, which contains all standards officially endorsed as organic by the organic movement. Both private standards and government regulations are admissible.

BIOFACH AMERICA LATINA - BIO BRAZIL FAIR

The awareness of healthy and organic food chases structured food trade

IFOAM – Organics International highlighted Latin America as the third largest region of organic land worldwide. According to IPD – Organics Brazil, R$ 10 billion (almost US$ 4 billion) is the potential turnover for the Brazilian market for organic 2020. Increasing disposable incomes and rising consumer demand for healthier products are driving consumption of organic products in Brazil. More than 50 % of the consumers consider the environmental impact, which gives organic quite success in Brazil. BIOFACH AMERICA LATINA co-located with BIO BRAZIL FAIR and Naturaltech - International Fair of Natural Products, Food and Health opens the doors for all members of the organic movement and offers possibilities to find new distribution channels.

*Figures of the last edition 2017: 167 exhibitors (without Naturaltech)
25,664 visitors (with Naturaltech)*

BIOFACH CHINA

Growing market with high demand for safe food

With the increase of consumers' awareness of organic products, the consumer base for organic products keeps expanding. The total market size for organic packaged foods and beverages in China is US$ 1.67 billion. The country ranks as the 5th largest market in the world by value. Organic packaged food and beverages in China saw a strong year-on-year growth of close to 20 % in 2015. This is higher than the rest of the Asia Pacific region. The total value including fresh organic products in mainland China had reached US$ 11.8 billion. BIOFACH CHINA gained a strong growth and will provide many highlights in 2018 like the Province of the Year, New Product Display Area, Match-making events, Purchasers Display Area, Organic Restaurant and many other interactive activities.

3,750 visitors*

BIOFACH JAPAN

International Organic Trade Fair and Conference

According to the Organic Trade Association Japan's organic market is valued at US$ 1 billion making Japan one of the top ten organic markets in the world. Organic packaged food and beverages are expected to see continuous growth over the next years, and unit prices are expected to rise due to both the devaluation of the yen and the fact that most brand offerings are imported. Positive impulses are expected by the big local brands which bring pressure to the overall pricing by enlarging their producing capacities and the trend that more and more super market chains are getting into the organic trade.

The next BIOFACH JAPAN is scheduled for 2018.

Participating at BIOFACH pays off.

We look forward to seeing you - in Germany, the USA, Brazil, China, India or Japan!
